2003 - 2004

HANDBOOK OF REQUIRED CLERKSHIPS
for
THIRD-YEAR MEDICAL STUDENTS
Class of 2005

Compiled and Edited by Gezelle Miller, Linda Cuesta, & Brandon Susselman

Contributions by the Student Affairs Staff

UCLA School of Medicine
Office of Student Affairs
Table of Contents

Section One: Clinical Years

The Clinical Years .................................................................3
Weeks of Instruction ....................................................................4
Requirements ................................................................................5
  Health Clearance
  United States Medical Licensing Examination (USMLE) Step 1 & Step 2
  Clinical Performance Examination (CPX)
  Association of American Medical Colleges (AAMC) Graduation Questionnaire (GQ)
  Registration Fees
Clinical Policies
  Learning Objectives .................................................................6
  Clinical Responsibilities ............................................................7
  Evaluations ................................................................................8
  Medical Student Summative Evaluation (Sample)
Procedures
  Viewing Your Clinical Schedule ....................................................13
  Rescheduling Required Clerkships ...............................................13
  Student Clinical Performance Evaluations ......................................13
  Vacation ...................................................................................14
  Approval/Excused Absences and Leaves .........................................14
  Leave of Absence .......................................................................15
  Leave of Absence/Reinstatement Procedures ....................................15
  Location of the Affiliated Hospitals (map) ........................................17
  Directions to the Affiliated Hospitals .............................................18

Section Two: Required Clerkships

Calendar of Weeks ......................................................................21
Required Clerkship Starting Dates ...............................................22
Hospital Abbreviations ...............................................................25
First Day of Service Directory .....................................................26
Course Descriptions:
  Clinical Foundations .................................................................30
  Doctoring 3 ..............................................................................31
  Longitudinal Preceptorship .........................................................32
  Longitudinal Radiology ............................................................33
  Inpatient Internal Medicine .........................................................34
  Surgery ....................................................................................36
Women’s and Child’s Health Block
  Obstetrics and Gynecology .........................................................38
  Pediatrics ..................................................................................39
Psychiatry / Neurology Block
  Psychiatry and Neurology ............................................................41
Ambulatory Internal Medicine and Family Medicine Block

Ambulatory Internal Medicine .................................................................44
Family Medicine ........................................................................................45

Section Three: Elective Clerkship

Student Run Homeless Family Clinic, FP253.03 ........................................52

Section Four: Educational Scheduling System

ESS Passwords .................................................................................................56
How ESS Schedules Your Clerkships ..........................................................56
Entering Your Track Scheduler Choices .........................................................57
Making Corrections ............................................................................................58
Frequently Asked Questions ............................................................................58
Entering Your Clerkship Request Lists ..........................................................59
Using the Look-Up Functions ..........................................................................59
Viewing Your Schedule on the Web .................................................................59